Queensland and Northern New South Wales

Nigel and Hilary Streatfield

In July 2020 the Covid-19 Pandemic was spreading across the world. Prior to a second wave in Victoria, Australia had been successful in keeping cases low and state borders were beginning to re-open. Queensland was due to open its border to NSW on July 10th and we headed north from Sydney with a view to enjoying some winter Queensland sunshine. As it turned out the borders were opened as scheduled, but closed again to Sydneysiders on August 1st. This is a record of our trip.
